

DAVID GILMOUR — Live In Gdansk (EMI):

Richard Wright's death from cancer just a few days ago adds poignancy to the release of this luxurious CD/DVD package — his last public performances were on his Pink Floyd buddy's 2006 tour, of which this was the final show.

Wright shone on an epic version of Echoes, the 25-minute Floyd classic that anchored the second half of a lengthy set, but Gilmour with his fluid guitar work was the star of the show.

Recorded in the historic shipyard that birthed the Solidarity trade union, and with an orchestra in tow, there is a complete performance of the On An Island album (much improved live) and a selection of Floyd classics (Shine On You Crazy Diamond, Wish You Were Here, Time, Comfortably Numb), all, as you would imagine, impeccably rendered.
